In dl no 22 (Fort 53 of 1892) the 2nd had that the course of training would last from 6 to 8 months, the cost being from Rs 2160 to 2880 per annum. Govt sanctioned Rs 2160 only & directed that the training might (dl no 29) 80 on for three years. The total amount intended to be spent was thus Rs 2160 x 3 6480 & not Rs 2880 x 3 8640 - This may be pointed out to the 2nd & an explanation called for as to why that was not noticed in 1897 & 1898 -

Reporting what the Police J.S. was re opened on the 8th March last & requesting that the Comptroller may be authorized to pass the pay of the officials that are now attending School

Volunteers yet when letter is correct, it is clear that there is a misprint & the total comes from Rs 2160 x 4 which the cost involved at the present rate can be met - Sanction may be conveyed

Total for a course of eight months	... 768

4. I would propose that this sum of Rs. 768 may be met out of the large balance of Rs. 5,412-12-6 remaining unspent out of Rs. 8,640 sanctioned in Government Proceedings No. 9816-25—J. F. 53-92, dated 21st December 1893.

5. I beg that early sanction may be accorded to the proposal and the Comptroller authorized to pass the pay of the officials that are now attending the school, as they are badly off for expenses.

6. A further report will be submitted at the end of this period.

No. 12428-29—J. 1542, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST MAY 1899.

ORDER THEREON.—As recommended by the Inspector General, the Government are pleased to extend the period of training in the Police School till the 15th November 1899, subject to the submission of the further report promised at the end of that period.

2. The entertainment of substitutes in place of those who are attending the Police School is also sanctioned, the allowances payable to them as noted in the margin being met from the balance remaining unspent out of Rs. 6,480 sanctioned in Government Proceedings No. 9816-25—J.
